Dear Mr. Kesselman-

Thanks for your letter. I would like to have the 1855-D $2 1/2 if it is as nice as you say, and I'm sure that it will be.

Best regards,
R. L. Miles, Jr.

I have the other two.

Dear Mr. Kesselman -

Send along the 1848-D $5 B.U. Thy records show that the one I have, I bought from Turner in Nashville for $125 and I know it's at least A.U. or it would be noted as otherwise, but since the price was so low guess it can't be any better than that. Thy Coins are in N.Y. and I can't check, but I'm usually willing to pick up any B.U. gold in the 40's, 50's or 60's. (and 70's).

In the life of me I don't know what you mean when you say you still have the 1860-s $5. I need the coin, but it's just too much trouble going back through all of your letters.
If it's as good as A.U. and the price is sensible send it along.

Best,
Jimmy Miller

Dear Mr. Kesselman-

I certainly wasn't trying to short-change you on the 148-D - guess I was in a big hurry when I wrote the check - add it to the next coin you sell me.

Yes, I do not have the 1855-0 $20 and will look forward to that and the '69 $5.

Dear Stan -

Thanks just the same, but can't make out on the 81 and 82 $20's.
I have never gone in for Proof gold except where a coin was only issued in in proof, or at least only available in proof. In other words, I'd be glad to settle for a couple of X.F.'s.

Good luck on your tests.

Dear Stan -

I'm going to keep the three coins, because I'm anxious to clean up this Series. But I don't feel good about it because I think I'm being robbed. Because a coin is scarce it doesn't mean a collector will gladly pay any price for a V.F. specimen when one comes along. I truly and sincerely believe that if the '64-5 an '76-s turned up in a sale instead of this way that I'd have to pay about 40% less for them - their condition simply doesn't warrant these prices, but I might have to wait a long time before I found the three of them

Sincerely,

R. L. Miles, Jr.

Want List except for early gold

Dear Mr. Kesselman -

Coin received - the 77 is nice and Payment is enclosed. The 76 cc just will not fit into my collection.

I do not doubt its rarity but there's doubt as to its being XF. From the wear on the hair right under "Liberty" I cannot call this anything more than V.F. + and I don't have Anything in my collection like that except for 1870-5 dollar and 1795 3 leaves half-dollar, and I don't think I'll ever improve on those two.

Incidentally my collection will be on display at the Metropolitan Convention - hope you can get by to take a look at it.

Sincerely,
R. L. Miles, Jr.

Dear Stan -

Please send along the 1807 $5 (facing right).
I already have the 1805.

I'd like to have the 1798 $2 1/2 A.V. but frankly I'm low in the bank account department right now. There have been about a half dozen Auction Sales in the past month,

Plus the fact that I just bought a new car too brought me down low. If you could hold it for me a little while until some more dividend checks come in I could manage Ok.

Sincerely,

Skippy

Dear John -

1. I have the inverted date 1865 $10 x F-A.V.
What I badly need is the plain 1865-5.

2. From Kussoff, I got 1797 16 stars $5 @ $2050, 1873 $10
@ $1700 and 1859-0 $20 @ $600. All kind y high, but I will say that guy is a worse crank on grading than Nauman's stock - I rate every one of them a plus better than he Catalogued them.

3. As for the 1832, you think it's too high, I think it's too high and Harvey thinks it's too high - but if it is a gem we have decided to take it, but only if it's a gem. I certainly wouldn't pay that price for anything else

Dear Stan -

I don't know what to say, except that from now on - call me collect before sending anything - we are so far apart on this one that it's pitiful. And you can't blame this on Stocks. - I think $2750 would probably be a fair price.

Dear Stan

Hope you are not talking about the '33 in H. Tobias' Ad. Harry looked at that one and said it was only A.V. and had three kicks Also he said he had one coming up on his Oct.
Sale. — If you are not talking about that one there seems to be all of a sudden a lot of them around.

Of course the '32 is another story, and would certainly like to get that one.

Dear Stan -

I'm not trying to be sarcastic - really I'm not - but I don't like your 1798 and I don't understand any grade called "Proof-like." It may be proof-like, but it's also worn, banged up, and badly scratched. Under a strong glass it looks like it's gone through a meat grinder. I'm not about to cough up $2600 for any coin like this (unless Maybe a 54-5 half-eagle. But despite all this we're still friends.
